Report on Generative AI Seminar

February 17, 2025

The PG & Research Department of Computer Science, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of H.H. The Rajah's College (Autonomous), Pudukkottai, organized an insightful seminar on Generative AI on February 17, 2025. The event was designed to provide students and faculty with a deeper understanding of the advancements and applications of Generative AI in various industries.

The seminar featured distinguished speakers, including Mr. Dineshkumar, Managing Partner of BY8Labs, who brought extensive expertise in AI technologies, along with Mr. Hemanth Raj and Mrs. Karthika, both Associate Developers specializing in AI development and applications. The session took place at 10:00 AM in the Smart Class of the Computer Science Block, creating an engaging atmosphere for interactive discussions.

Throughout the seminar, the speakers elaborated on the transformative impact of Generative AI across different sectors, from automation to creative industries. They provided insights into emerging trends, ethical considerations, and future developments in AI, sparking curiosity and enthusiasm among the attendees. The session proved to be an enriching experience, equipping participants with valuable knowledge and encouraging them to explore the evolving landscape of AI technologies.

Report on Workshop
"NAAC: New Assessment & Accreditation Framework"
Organised by
Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of H.H. The Rajah's College (Autonomous), Pudukkottai, organized a workshop on "NAAC: New Assessment & Accreditation Framework" on 18th February 2025 at 12.30 PM in the Manimandavam hall.

The session commenced with a Welcome Address delivered by Dr. S. Ganesan, Associate Professor & Head, Department of English, who warmly greeted the dignitaries, faculty, and participants, setting the tone for the academic deliberations.

The Inaugural Address was rendered by Dr. B. Buvaneswari, Principal of the College, who emphasized the importance of quality assurance in higher education and the relevance of NAAC's revised framework for sustaining academic excellence and institutional growth.

The core of the workshop was led by the Resource Person, Dr. Velu Suresh Kumar, IQAC Coordinator, Associate Professor & Head, Department of Economics. He provided an insightful presentation on the nuances of the New NAAC Assessment and Accreditation Framework, focusing on its key components, criteria, and the practical implications for higher educational institutions. His deliberation highlighted the importance of data-driven quality benchmarks, documentation, and the need for continuous institutional improvement.

The event was further enriched by Felicitations delivered by Dr. N. Athavan, Controller of Examinations & Bursar, Associate Professor & Head, Department of Physics, who appreciated the initiative of IQAC in conducting the workshop and motivated the faculty members to actively engage in quality enhancement practices.

The workshop concluded with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr. S. Ravichandran, Associate Professor & Head, Department of Computer Science, who expressed gratitude to the Principal, resource person, organizers, faculty members, and participants for their active involvement and contribution to the success of the programme. Overall, the workshop served as a significant platform for sensitizing the faculty and stakeholders about the New NAAC Framework, ensuring better preparedness for accreditation and reinforcing the institution's commitment towards academic quality and excellence.

One-day workshop on "Entrepreneurial Skill Development"

In today's economic landscape, Entrepreneurship plays a crucial role in deriving innovation and generating employment. Recognizing the importance of nurturing entrepreneurial talent among students, the PG and Research Department of Commerce, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organized a one-day workshop on Entrepreneurial Skill Development on 20.02.2025 at Conference Hall. This workshop aimed to provide students with practical insights, tools and motivation to pursue entrepreneurial careers.

The workshop commenced with a welcome address by Dr. C. Jeevanandam, Associate Professor of Commerce. Dr. M. Kalaiselvi, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Commerce has introduced the chief guest to the gathering. Dr. B. Buvaneswari, Principal, H. H. The Rajah's College, Pudukkottai, in her presidential address emphasized the significance of entrepreneurial thinking in the contemporary business world.

Resource person Mrs. H. Shakubar Nisha, B.Com., M.B.A., M.Phil., Woman Entrepreneur of Organic farming explained the strategies for identifying viable business ideas through market research and understanding customer needs. The speaker informed the students about practical marketing and sales techniques of business, organic farm yields and value-added products from agri-produce. The Resource person is an alumna of the Commerce Department.

An interesting interaction of the students with the resource person was made to clarify the doubts raised by the students. The workshop successfully achieved its objectives and ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. R. Sathru Sankara Velsamy, Associate Professor of Commerce. Other faculty members of the Commerce Department actively participated in organizing the workshop. Nearly 245 students participated and benefited through this workshop.

Report on the One Day International Seminar

"The Soliloquies of Shakespeare's Hamlet, Macbeth, and Othello"

Date: 20.02.2025
Time: 11:30 AM
Venue: Department of English

The Post Graduate and Research Department of English, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), H.H. The Rajah's College (Autonomous), Pudukkottai, successfully organized a One Day International Seminar on the topic "The Soliloquies of Shakespeare's Hamlet, Macbeth, and Othello" on 20th February 2025 at 11:30 AM in the Department premises.

The session commenced with the Welcome Address delivered by Dr. S. Ganesan, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of English. In his welcome speech, Dr. Ganesan emphasized the significance of William Shakespeare's contribution to world literature, particularly his masterful use of soliloquies as a dramatic device. He highlighted how the psychological depth and emotional intensity of soliloquies in Hamlet, Macbeth, and Othello offer profound insights into human nature and moral dilemmas. Dr. Ganesan also warmly welcomed the dignitaries, participants, and the international guest, expressing appreciation for their academic enthusiasm and participation.

The Resource Person for the seminar was Dr. R.S. Baskkaran, Professor of English at Omar Al Mukhtar University, Libya. Dr. Baskkaran delivered a scholarly and engaging presentation on the thematic and rhetorical elements of Shakespearean soliloquies. He meticulously analyzed key soliloquies from Hamlet, Macbeth, and Othello, offering interpretations rooted in literary theory, psychoanalysis, and dramaturgy. His international perspective and vast academic experience added great value to the seminar.

The event attracted a diverse audience comprising postgraduate students, research scholars, and faculty members from various institutions. The interactive session following the lecture encouraged meaningful dialogue and academic exchange between the participants and the resource person.

The seminar concluded on a high note with expressions of appreciation from the participants. The event was not only a tribute to Shakespeare's genius but also a vibrant platform for intellectual enrichment and scholarly engagement.

Report on the One-Day Workshop on Recent Trends in Archaeology with Special Reference to Porpanaikkottai

The Department of History, in association with the Archaeological Heritage Forum, organized a One-Day Workshop on "Recent Trends in Archaeology with Special Reference to Porpanaikkottai" on 21st March 2025 (Friday) at 2.00 PM in the Seminar Hall, H.H. The Rajah's College (Autonomous), Pudukkottai. The workshop aimed to provide insights into recent archaeological excavations in Tamil Nadu and highlight the cultural significance of Porpanaikkottai.

The workshop commenced with the Welcome Address by Dr. M. Pargunan, who warmly greeted the dignitaries, faculty members, and participants, emphasizing the importance of archaeological studies in reconstructing history.

The Presidential Address was delivered by the Principal, Dr. B. Buvaneswari, who stressed the importance of connecting historical research with archaeology, particularly for understanding the heritage of Tamil Nadu. She encouraged students and faculty members to engage in archaeological research to preserve cultural identity.

The first technical session was led by Dr. T. Thangadurai, District Archaeological Officer and Zonal Director (In-Charge) of State Archaeology, Thanjavur. He presented detailed insights into the recent archaeological excavations in Tamil Nadu, with a special focus on Porpanaikkottai, explaining the findings, their historical interpretations, and their contribution to understanding Tamil culture and society.

The second session was handled by Dr. A. Chandrabose, Associate Professor, who delivered a lecture on "Porpanaikkottai: Long Term Traces and Recent Ideologies". His presentation highlighted the ideological perspectives and interpretative frameworks in archaeological research, stressing the need for integrating modern methodologies with traditional historical analysis.

The workshop concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by Prof. V. Murugaiyan, who acknowledged the contributions of the Principal, resource persons, faculty members, Archaeological Heritage Forum, and student participants. The event ended with the National Anthem.

Outcomes of the Workshop

The workshop enriched participants with updated knowledge and practical insights into archaeology. The major outcomes were:

1. Enhanced understanding of recent archaeological excavations in Tamil Nadu.
2. Exposure to the cultural and historical significance of Porpanaikkottai.

3. Awareness of modern research methodologies and interpretive ideologies in archaeology.
4. Strengthened collaboration between academia and archaeological institutions.
5. Encouragement to students to pursue archaeological research as a field of study.

The One-Day Workshop on Recent Trends in Archaeology with Special Reference to Porpanaikkottai was a successful academic event that combined scholarly expertise with practical insights. It created awareness among students and faculty about the importance of archaeology in historical studies and reinforced the college's commitment to promoting cultural heritage research.
